

Prayers For Those in a Spiritually Uneven Marriage

(All Scriptures are NKJ version)

Lord, thank You we can pursue the things which make for peace and the things by which one may edify another. (Romans 14:19)

Lord, thank You that you will fulfill our joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Thank You that nothing will be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind we would each esteem others more than ourselves. May we each look out not only for our own interests, but also for the interests of others. (Philippians 2:2-4)

Lord, thank You that our hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God... (Colossians 2:2)

Lord, thank You that You will make our love abound and increase for each other and for others just as we do to You, so that You may establish our hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father at Your coming with Your saints. (1 Thessalonians 3:12-13)

Lord, thank You that the wife is the husband's beloved, and his desire is for his wife, and the wife's desire is for her husband. (Solomon 7:10)

Lord, thank You that we are kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ forgave us. (Ephesians 4:32)

Lord, thank You that we will not let any root of bitterness spring up, causing trouble – that we might not be defiled. (Hebrews 12:15)

Lord, thank You that the wife will be subject [submit] to her own husband, as is fitting in the Lord. (Colossians 3:18)

Lord, thank You that the husband will love his wife and not be embittered against her. (Colossians 3:19)

Lord, thank You that You will be found by those who did not seek You, and You will be manifest to those who did not ask for You. (Romans 10:20)

Lord, thank You that You are not slack concerning Your promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. (II Peter 3:9)

Lord, thank You that the Son of Man has come to seek and to save those who are lost. (Luke 19:10)

Lord, thank You that the eyes of their understanding would be enlightened; that they may know what is the hope of Your calling, what are the riches of the glory of Your inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of Your power toward those who believe, according to the working of Your mighty power. (Ephesians 1:18-19)

Lord, thank You that they will repent and turn from all their transgressions, so that iniquity will not be their ruin. (Ezekiel 18:30)

Lord, thank You that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (John 3:16)

Lord, thank You that if they confess with their mouths that Jesus Christ is Lord, and believe in their hearts that You raised Him from the dead, they will be saved. For with the heart they believe unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made to salvation. (Romans 10:9-10)

Lord, thank You that these who are married, their marriages be held in honor among all, and let their marriage bed be undefiled, for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. (Hebrews 13:4)

Lord, thank You that they will rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with them. (II Corinthians 13:11)
